

Arrange a super seminar for your team

One of the services Sunsuper offers you is super, personal finance and investment education seminars for your team. As part of this service, we can:

- tailor on-site information seminars for your employees on a variety of financial information topics including:
  - getting started
  - investment choice
  - Sunsuper overview
  - salary sacrifice
  - insurance
  - maximising your super
  - transition to retirement strategies
  - women and super
- arrange these meetings at a time(s) to suit you and your business;
- present to large or small groups, formally or informally; and
- run sessions at a variety of locations using our network of authorised representatives.

Benefits to employers

Our seminars provide a range of useful financial information that will improve your employees' understanding of the issues that impact could impact their retirement plans. Benefits include:

- making your workplace more attractive to potential employees, and assisting with recruitment and retention;
- improving productivity by reducing employee stress about personal finances;
- reducing the query load on your payroll and HR staff;
- improving employees' understanding and use of salary sacrifice and super;
- enhancing your mature-aged worker strategy, and helping people arrange their working commitments in a way that suits you and them.

Benefits to employees

By attending our seminars, employees will increase their understanding of superannuation and have the confidence to make good decisions that will help them work toward a financially worry-free retirement. Potential benefits include:

- improved levels of retirement confidence;
- improved financial knowledge, behaviour and attitudes;
- increased satisfaction with the company, career and remuneration;
- increased saving, in general and for retirement.

How to arrange a seminar

If you are interested in holding a seminar(s) at your workplace, we have attached a handy flyer that could help you promote this opportunity to your team. This is a general invitation to staff to express interest in one of our seminars and will help you gauge interest in an onsite presentation. Once you've decided to hold a seminar, contact Sunsuper on 13 11 84 to arrange a time and a program that suits.
