2 Preferred beneficiaries

You can make a binding death benefit nomination by completing a Binding death benefit nomination form instead of the section below. A binding nomination is a legal instrument that 'binds' the Trustee of Sunsuper to pay your death benefit to your nominated beneficiaries in most cases. For more information or if you would like a Binding death benefit nomination form visit sunsuper.com.au/beneficiary. You can also nominate a reversionary beneficiary when you open an Income account. Refer to the Sunsuper for life guide for details.

You can add or change your nomination at any time using Member Online or the Sunsuper app.

I nominate the people below as my preferred beneficiaries for the payment of my death benefit from my Super-savings account. I understand my preferred nomination will be used by Sunsuper as a guide only and that Sunsuper is not bound by my nomination when exercising its absolute discretion to pay my death benefit.

If the information requested is not provided, Sunsuper may be unable to properly administer your benefits and notify you about your entitlements. Sunsuper will normally only use the information you provide on this application for these purposes.

Sunsuper will also use this information to notify you about Sunsuper and other products. Sunsuper does not normally disclose information about members to parties outside the Sunsuper group, except parties contracted to provide services to Sunsuper. This includes but is not limited to the Fund's administration service provider, insurer, auditors and legal advisers.

6 Authorisation and declaration Sign this application form and return to Sunsuper:

Providing your Tax file number (TFN)

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, your superannuation fund is authorised to collect, use and disclose your tax file number.

The trustee of your superannuation fund may disclose your tax file number to another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request the trustee of your superannuation fund in writing that your tax file number not be disclosed to any other superannuation provider.

Declining to quote your tax file number to the trustee of your superannuation fund is not an offence. However giving your tax file number to your superannuation fund will have the following advantages:

- your superannuation fund will be able to accept all permitted types of contributions to your account/s,
- other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, you will not pay more tax than you need to - this affects both contributions to your superannuation and benefit payments when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits, and
- it will make it much easier to find different superannuation accounts in your name so that you receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire.

I declare that:

- I apply to become a member of Sunsuper and I agree to be bound by the Trust Deed that governs the Fund.
- I apply to open a Super-savings account.
- I acknowledge and have read my Duty of Disclosure at sunsuper.com.au/dutyofdisclosure and all of my details on this Membership application are correct.
- I have received, read and accept the accompanying Sunsuper for life Corporate PDS. I understand that other important information which forms part of the PDS is contained in the Sunsuper for life Corporate Insurance guide, Sunsuper for life guide and Sunsuper for life Investment guide and that the PDS should be read in its entirety.
- I understand all the conditions I must meet to be eligible to obtain Standard insurance cover, as described in the Sunsuper for life Corporate Insurance guide. I acknowledge insurance cover is provided by an external insurance company.
- By signing this Membership application, I consent to the collection and disclosure of information about me for the purposes shown above.
