

Duty of Disclosure for insurance cover

Before a superannuation fund trustee like Sunsuper Pty Ltd enters into a life insurance contract in respect of your life, it has a duty to tell the insurer anything that it knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the insurer's decision to provide the insurance and on what terms.

The trustee entering into the contract has this duty until the insurer agrees to provide insurance. The trustee has the same duty before it extends, varies or reinstates the contract. The trustee does not need to tell the insurer anything that reduces the risk of the insurance, or is common knowledge, or the insurer knows or should know as an insurer, or where the insurer waives the duty to tell them.

If you as a member of Sunsuper do not tell us or the insurer something

If you, as the person whose life is to be insured under the life insurance contract, do not tell us or the insurer something that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the insurer's decision to provide insurance and on what terms, this may be treated as a failure by us to comply with our Duty of Disclosure. This could affect the insurance cover provided to you as described below.

If we do not tell the insurer something (because you didn't tell us or otherwise)

In exercising the following rights, the insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If the insurer does, it may apply the following rights separately to each type of cover.

If we do not tell the insurer anything we are required to, and the insurer would not have provided the insurance if it had been told, the insurer may avoid the contract within three years of entering into it.

If the insurer chooses not to avoid the contract, it may, at any time, reduce the amount of insurance provided. This would be worked out using a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if we had told the insurer everything we were required to. However, if the contract has a surrender value, or provides cover on death, the insurer may only exercise this right within three years of entering into the contract.

If the insurer chooses not to avoid the contract or reduce the amount of insurance provided, it may, at any time, vary the contract in a way that places the insurer in the same position it would have been in if we had told the insurer everything we were required to. However, this right does not apply if the contract has a surrender value, or provides cover on death. If the failure to comply with the Duty of Disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed. For further information please contact us.

4 Death and/or Total & Permanent Disability cover

I want to transfer my existing level of cover, in addition to the current cover I have, to Sunsuper as follows:

Death cover $

Total & Permanent Disability cover $

Your transferring cover will be fixed cover (your cover stays the same and your premiums will generally increase on each birthday).

I want to transfer a lower amount of my existing level of cover, in addition to the current cover I have, to Sunsuper as follows:

Death cover $

Total & Permanent Disability cover $

Note: Transferred cover is provided as Tailored cover. When Tailored Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover is approved, any existing Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover / premium you have may change based on your occupational classification. Once you reach age 61, your Tailored Total & Permanent Disability cover reduces annually by 10% of your insured benefit at age 60, until your 67th birthday when cover ceases. Your premiums are adjusted accordingly.

I understand that any transferred Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Sunsuper insurance policy (including definition of Total and Permanent Disablement), and subject to a maximum dollar value of $1,000,000 for Death cover and $1,000,000 for Total & Permanent Disability cover. Transferred cover is in addition to any existing cover.

5 Income Protection cover

Income Protection cover $ monthly benefit

Benefit Period

Waiting Period days

I do NOT want to have my Income Protection cover indexed on 1 July each year

Note: Transferred cover is provided as Tailored cover. When Tailored Income Protection cover is approved, any existing Income Protection cover / premium you have may change based on your occupational classification.

I understand that any transferred Income Protection cover will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Sunsuper insurance policy (including definition of Totally Disabled). A $10,000 maximum monthly benefit limit applies (subject to 85% of your salary). Where the Waiting Period offered under my previous fund / policy is different to the available Waiting Periods under the Sunsuper Insurance policy, my Waiting Period will be rounded up to the next longest Waiting Period. Where the Benefit Period offered is different to the available Benefit Period under the Sunsuper insurance policy, my Benefit Period will be limited to the next shortest Benefit Period available.

Important

You should not cancel your existing cover until you have received confirmation that your transfer request has been accepted by Sunsuper.

Your application for transfer of cover will be assessed by our insurer and we will notify you of the outcome. Our insurer may need to contact your previous fund or the insurer of your previous policy in completing its assessment of your application.

If your application to transfer existing Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover is accepted, you will be allocated additional Sunsuper Tailored cover (up to a maximum dollar value of $1,000,000 for this transfer) to replace your Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover under your previous fund or previous policy. This transferred cover will be fixed cover unless you specify otherwise. Any existing automatic Death and Total & Permanent Disability Assist cover you have at the time your transfer application is accepted (and any existing additional Tailored cover) will continue as Tailored cover.

IMPORTANT: If you are accepted for transferred cover prior to the receipt of your first SG contribution, you will not be eligible for automatic cover where your first SG contribution is received more than 120 days after you joined your employer.

Premiums may vary. If your application to transfer existing underwritten Income Protection insurance is accepted, you will be allocated Tailored Income Protection cover (up to a maximum of $10,000 monthly benefit and 85% of your salary). Any existing Income Protection cover may continue, subject to maximum limits. We will advise you of the Waiting Period available to you (30, 60, 90 or 180 days), upon acceptance of your application.

If you have applied for additional cover through Sunsuper and been declined or been eligible for a Total & Permanent Disability Assist claim, this Transfer of insurance cover application will not be accepted. The cost of approved transferred cover will be based on the applicable premium rates and will reflect your occupational category and any premium loadings or exclusions that may have applied to your previous cover.
