SUNSUPER ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD APPOINTMENT

Sunsuper has today announced the appointment of Ms Georgina Williams to the position of director of the board.

Ms Williams, who is based in Melbourne, has more than 25 years' financial services industry experience in both banking and superannuation.

Ms Williams' roles have included Chief Executive Officer, Food and Wine Victoria; Group Executive Engagement, Advocacy and Brand at Australian Super; and Head of Brand and Marketing at the Bank of Melbourne. She has also held a number of executive positions at NAB over many years in both Australia and the United Kingdom, which included roles in the commercial banking, wealth, strategy and marketing departments.

Ms Williams currently serves as a non-executive director on the boards of Reece Ltd and Lifestyle Communities Ltd.

Sunsuper chair Andrew Fraser welcomed Ms Williams to the board and said that at a time of unprecedented growth for the company, her extensive experience across multiple fields of expertise be of great benefit to the Fund.

"Ms Williams' appointment will complement the diverse and significant pool of talent that already sits on the Sunsuper board," Mr Fraser said.

Mr Fraser said Ms Williams' appointment was the result of an independent, national recruitment search initiated by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry Queensland (CCIQ) and undertaken by Russell Reynolds Associates.

Ms Williams replaces former director Theresa Moltoni as one of the three CCIQ appointments on the Sunsuper board. Sunsuper's board comprises equal numbers of employer and employee representatives, as well as three independent directors.

Sunsuper is one of Australia's biggest superannuation and retirement business with more than 1.3 million members and around $56 billion in funds under management.
