Sunsuper wins big at SuperRatings Awards

Sunsuper has cemented its position as one of the superannuation industry's best performers by winning SuperRatings 2019 Choice Super of the Year at the annual SuperRatings and Lonsec Fund of the Year Awards Dinner in Melbourne overnight.

The SuperRatings award is awarded annually to the fund that offers the best value for money to engaged members during the accumulation phase across a range of criteria including investments, fees, customer service, insurance and fees

Sunsuper also received the Best New Innovation award for Beam, a new time saving tool which integrates super in existing payroll software. This award goes to the fund that adds the most value to members through innovative new products and services

Sunsuper Chief Executive Officer Scott Hartley said it was an honour for Sunsuper to accept these awards which highlighted the Fund's commitment to its members.

"These wins highlight Sunsuper's ongoing commitment to inspire and empower our members to fulfil their retirement dreams," said Mr Hartley.

"As a profit-for-members fund our customers are genuinely at the heart of everything we do, and these two awards are truly a reflection of that.

"At Sunsuper, every interaction with our members is driven by our desire to help them achieve financial freedom, and these awards are evidence of that. It really shows that as a profit-for-members fund, our members and clients are at the heart of everything we do.

"These awards, on top of our Chant West Super Fund of the Year 2017 and 2018, Money magazine's Best Super Fund Manager 2018, Conexus Financial Fund of the Year 2018, Super Review's 2017 and 2018 Fund of the Year and SuperRatings' Super Fund of the Year 2017 make Sunsuper Australia's most awarded superannuation funds."

Sunsuper is one of Australia's fastest growing super funds with more than 1.3 million members and $58 billion in funds under management.

Sunsuper was also a finalist in the MySuper of the Year and Pension of the Year categories.
