

Sunsuper and QSuper are merging

Significant Event Notice for Sunsuper clearing house

This notice provides information about the upcoming merger between Sunsuper and QSuper. It's important you read this document to understand what the merger may mean for you as a participating employer that uses Sunsuper clearing house.

Important changes to Sunsuper clearing house

Sunsuper and QSuper have agreed to merge to become Australian Retirement Trust. The merger is on track to proceed on 28 February 2022 pending final Board, regulatory and legislative approvals.

Sunsuper clearing house is issued by Precision Administration Services Pty Ltd (Precision), (ABN 47 098 977 667, AFSL No 246 604). Precision is wholly owned by Sunsuper Pty Ltd (ABN 88 010 720 840, AFSL No 228975) as Trustee for the Sunsuper Superannuation Fund (Sunsuper) (ABN 98 503 137 921). From 28 February 2022, Precision will be wholly owned by Australian Retirement Trust Pty Ltd (ABN 88 010 720 840, AFSL No 228975) as Trustee for Australian Retirement Trust (ABN 60 905 115 063). Sunsuper clearing house will be renamed Australian Retirement Trust clearing house.

As a result of the merger, the eligibility criteria for Sunsuper clearing house will change. You will need to be a participating employer of Australian Retirement Trust and use Australian Retirement Trust as your default superannuation fund.

You do not need to do anything to become a participating employer of Australian Retirement Trust. This will happen automatically on 28 February 2022. To use Australian Retirement Trust as your default superannuation fund, simply include Australian Retirement Trust's details in Section B of any Superannuation Standard Choice form you give to new employees from 28 February 2022.

The Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for Australian Retirement Trust clearing house will be available at australianretirementtrust.com.au/clearing-house on or shortly after 28 February 2022.

You can continue making superannuation payments for your employees at sunsuper.com.au/employer-online until 28 February 2022.

After 28 February 2022, you'll need to visit australianretirementtrust.com.au/employer-online

Nothing else in your agreements with Sunsuper will change, and you can continue to contribute to the merged fund for your employees after the merger date. We'll continue to accept your contributions and allocate them to your employees' accounts in the merged fund.
